

Theresa Miller

Associate

Theresa is an engaging and passionate trainer, specialising in business writing and communications skills.

Theresa has almost 30 years experience in the media as a television journalist, presenter, and radio/TV producer and has worked for Channels Nine, Seven, ABC TV and SBS, as well as Radio National's Life Matters program.

While living overseas, Theresa was a producer on Good Morning Britain and BSKYB News in London, and a reporter/producer for CNN World Report and The European Business Channel in Zurich.

Theresa has also media trained hundreds of people from executives to athletes and rock stars. During the 2000 Olympics she was the Lord Mayor's special media adviser.

She has a Bachelor Degree in Journalism from the University of South Australia and is completing her Masters in Creative Writing at UTS.

In 2003, Theresa published Making Babies – Personal IVF Stories (Scribe). Her first novel is due out in 2018.