

Bianca Inglezos

Client Services and Marketing Coordinator

Bianca joined our talkforce team in July 2018.

Prior to talkforce, Bianca worked for Townsends Law, working in their Sydney based administration team. Bianca is also experienced in graphic design work and has consulted to a number of Australian small businesses. She also has varied overseas experience working for a Greek theatre company in Athens. In this role she lead their social media, digital and website content. Furthermore, she briefly worked with a Turkish television station in Izmir helping with their translation of lyrics.

Bianca's roles and responsibilities are varied at talkforce. A critical component of her role is as key Client Service contact for support, logistics and events co-ordination. In house, Bianca partners closely with our Associate team to ensure the seamless delivery and execution of our client services and solutions. Bianca also oversees our digital presence, including our website and social media. Bianca is also our key contact for booking The Dock, our onsite training facility.

Bianca is also fluent in Turkish and striving to improve her Greek.

Our clients appreciate Bianca for her warmth, friendly and proactive approach to her work. She works closely with the following consultants and their clients:

- Joseph La Posta
- Julie Holman
- Gail Bower
- Andy Price
- Kat Thomas
